Plaintiff,

vs.

JUL 08 2008

WALDEN HOUSE, INC.

RICHARD W. WIEKING
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Defendant

Plaintiff is respectfully requesting an additional extension of time in order to respond to last letter sent by Court. Plaintiff attempted on July 7, 2008, to access records from Defendant's response at Federal Courthouse, in order to adequately respond to statements that Plaintiff's Title VII Charge is not clear. Plaintiff could not find any records concerning Defendant's response to her Complaint in the hard copy paper file regarding this case. Plaintiff attempted to then find and read the response to Plaintiff's Complaint and any other responses made by Defendant, and could not find this information in the electronic file. Plaintiff was given the name of and phone number of the clerk assistant to this Judge in order to inquire about this. As Plaintiff specifically requested time off in order to be able to walk in person to this Courthouse, Plaintiff is now requesting the date of Monday, July 21 2008, in order to be able to successfully ask and be granted time off from her full time professional job in order to be able to walk into the Courthouse again and view the electronic record, perhaps when the clerks have had the opportunity to file this information, if this is what has occurred. Plaintiff reasonably needs this information in order to respond adequately to very serious charges, as this case involves whistleblowing regarding homeless populations and Latino clients and their families, who are currently recovering from substance abuse and being in prison. Thus, given the serious whistleblowing nature of these Charges and this case, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this matter continue to be given serious consideration in terms of having sufficient time to be able to respond in a fair manner. Plaintiff appreciates the fairness of this Judge thus far as regards giving consideration to this matter.

Plaintiff is submitting with this letter, EXHIBIT 26: letter dated: May 3, 2006: Re: OCC Case No. 0253-06, mailed from the Office of Citizen Complaints, from Kevin Allen, Director. Plaintiff complained regarding neglect of duty and proper conduct on Police Officer at police station on Valencia Street, San Francisco, for failing to file a Police report regarding criminal activity of Defendant manger Frank Gehr, for intentionally trapping Plaintiff in the Nexus against her will and stating to her 'You are going to be forced to have this meeting.' Defendant Counselor Patricia Ayala is a witness that Gehr authorized her to escort clients who were manning the nexus out of the nexus by her on the date, August 3, 2005, 1:00 p.m. Plaintiff contacted Irene Rapoza and Rapoza taped the interview at that time with Plaintiff. During interview, Plaintiff made important comments regarding the REACH program. Afterwards, Plaintiff again attempted to have a Police report written on this matter at the Fillmore Police station.

Case No C 08-0894 PHJ

Police officers there would not take a Police report, stating that Gehr's conduct was a civil matter, not a criminal matter. The police thus intentionally lied and again intentionally refused to do their legal duty. Trapping someone in a nexus intentionally is a criminal matter. Bernadette's letter also verifies that Defendant managers have a history of behaving in a violent manner, including assault of Bernadette by Gail, which caused Trauma for Bernadette.

EXHIBIT 27: letter dated: June 21, 2007, written Dobie Edmunds, NP, from Kaiser Permanente, San Francisco. This letter is concrete evidence that Plaintiff while employed at Walden House suffered harm. Plaintiff suffered abdominal cramps on a continuous basis for months, due to severe stress, criticism, harassment she experienced from Gehr, Nelson, Therapists and Counselors at Walden House. Plaintiff chose to endure physical suffering of cramps so that she would not run the possible risk of becoming addicted to Vicodin medication. Plaintiff is a say no to drugs individual and she felt it was wiser to endure this physical pain rather than to risk possible addiction. Therapist Patricia is also a witness to cramps and physical suffering of client. Plaintiff had lunch on a regular basis with Patricia and communicated to her at the time that she was suffering from cramps.

Re: Ms. Jane Rocio Evans MRN# 1236055

This letter is being written at the request of Ms. Evans. She would like to have documentation of the evaluation that was done at our facility in 2005 for her complaints of daily abdominal pain and cramping.

CT scans of pelvis and abdomen were done 3/ 11/ 05, showing one simple ovarian cyst of 4.8 cm. A follow-up pelvic ultrasound was done 4/19/05 showing normal uterus and ovaries, indicating interval spontaneous resolution of cyst. Urine cultures 3/05/05 and 6/05/05 were also normal. Ms Evans was given a prescription for narcotic analgesics (Vicodin) for the pain, but she did not fill the prescription.

Ms. Evans states that the abdominal cramping and pain that she had been evaluated for disappeared as soon as she was let go from her job at Walden House. These symptoms have not recurred. She states that the job at Walden House had been very stressful and that her work was unfairly criticized. She is now working in a welfare to work program and doing well with no recurrence of symptoms.
